

FORD LEISURE RANGE

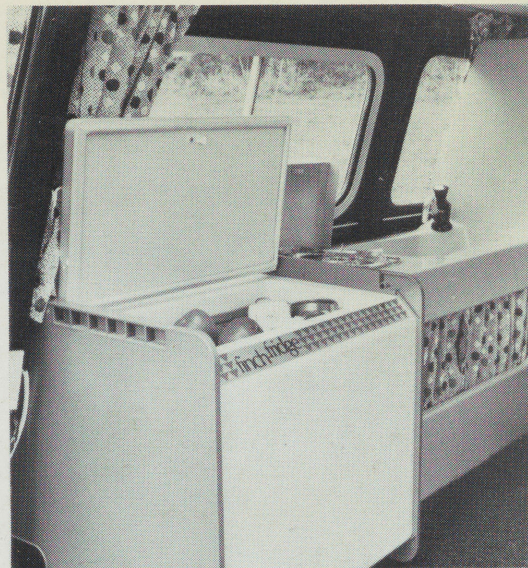

Escort Outback

1975 MODEL

Built strong to take Australia in its stride.

Optional 12 volt refrigerator.

The master bedroom.

The family room.

What a way to go!

This little van's built to do everything its bigger more costly competition can do, and some. Fully equipped for a great get-away-from-it-all weekend or a trip to Ayers Rock. Escort Outback does it in style, with all the comforts of home including a stove, and kitchen sink!

YOUR ACCOMMODATION: □ Full length fibreglass elevating roof with built in sunroof for stand up head room. □ Full-width curtains on silent running tracks. □ Portable ice box. □ Fold-away timber finish table. □ Moulded fibreglass galley contains removable range with 2 1/4 lb. L.P. gas bottle; sink and a storage cupboard. □ 12 volt and 8 watt transistorised fluorescent light fitting. □ Fully carpeted interior. □ 6 ft. x 4 ft. x 3 ft. nylon awning complete with poles, ropes and pegs. □ 3 ft. x 6 ft. bed upholstered in hard wearing denim which converts into a comfy seat for two. □ Optional 3 ft. x 6 ft. bunk.

SEE THE COUNTRY IN STYLE: Outback sports the famous G.S. Rally Pack as standard equipment. With sports steering wheel, styled rearview mirror, racy side stripes and special chrome wheel covers. You'll like the cockpit comfort too—tiltable buckets give you day long driving comfort. And to keep you cool there's a fresh air ventilation system.

THE ENGINE ROOM: Under Outback's bonnet you'll find 1300 cc of willing power—60 BHP to be precise. And because of its superbly efficient Crossflow head design you'll achieve up to 40 mpg economy.
